

2023 Williamson County Parks Bond

Project Information

What is included in the $59 million for parks?

The park bond measure includes a mixture of 14 proposed projects related to several shared use path projects, future parkland acquisition and facility development projects associated with Berry Springs Park and Preserve, Williamson County Expo Center and Twin Lakes Park.

For more info:

www.wilcotx.gov/2023bonds

- 1 Brushy Creek Regional Trail connection between Fern Bluff MUD and City of Round Rock
- 2 Gap funding for construction of shared use path from Southwest Regional Park to Sam Bass Rd. (Berry Springs Park & Preserve improvements also included in funding)
- 3 Shared use path along Berry Creek between Berry Springs Park & Preserve and Georgetown's Westside Park
- 4 Twin Lakes Park projects with YMCA to construct adventure course and expand parking
- 5 Shared use path between Lakeline Park and Twin Lakes Park connection to Brushy Creek Regional Trail with bridge over Bell Blvd.
- 6 Williamson County Expo Center covered west arena, restrooms/showers and land acquisition to expand facilities

The Williamson County Commissioners Court has called an election for November 7, 2023, for voters to consider two separate ballot propositions for roads and park and recreational purposes. This map illustrates some of the proposed park and recreational bond projects with proposed locations and preliminary project scope. The actual park and recreational projects constructed and/or developed with park bond proceeds are subject to change based on future economic, market and other conditions.